There are many interesting houses in Poland, for example, the Keret House and the Upside-Down House. The Keret House is long and thin, and it is between two houses. Inside the house, there are four rooms. The kitchen, the dining room, and the bathroom are on the first floor. The bedroom is right above them. When people enter the house, they can only walk in a line.

The Upside-Down House is quite big. The living room, the bedroom, and the kitchen are next to each other. The bathroom is in the bedroom. Inside the house, the floor is the ceiling, and the ceiling is the floor. When people are in the Upside-Down House, they don't feel right because the ceiling is at an angle.
